

BHANDARA DAY

POSTED BY AJJAY

When I asked master why he says Bhandara is very special and there is abundance of grace that flows on that day. As per "definition" , PLMs shower their grace 24X7 uniformly in all directions. His reply was, as always, not just to satisfy mind but also graceful on the soul. Sharing below for you all:

"Master's Grace flows every day every moment. From Master's point of view every day is Bhandara Day. But we people don't turn our cup of attention towards that Grace and we miss so much of that ever flowing Grace. By fixing a special Day the Masters motivate us to be more receptive to that Grace! It is for us, therefore that Bhandara Day becomes Special! Love. Ishwar Puri"
