Sound of Love

Ishwar Puri: "Love is the experience of the unspoken Sound.. within ourselves. When we get filled up with that Sound.. and walk into this world, Love fills us. The whole world changes. Everybody is in love with you. Why? what happened? You just fell in love with your Self!.. because you have listened to the Sound of Love.. You are no longer wearing the mask of thoughts.. of hypocrisy.. of trying to be someone else than who you are. You found out who you are.. The Sound of Love is the Sound of.. compassion.. that takes us close to everybody.. And when we are close to people, we discover that we are made of the same Oneness.. The closer we are to love, the closer we are to the experience of love and oneness with the whole world.."

Love is an experience of the Soul. which is not mental..The human body with the Soul inside is experiencing Love all the time.. It flows directly from the Soul.. The Soul uses the mind to speak.. When.. we have put.. Spiritual Will [instead of mental will] into words.. the spoken Word or Varnatmak shabd [also becomes] the projection of the One.. the language of the Soul", "the Sound of Love"
